

3790

Special Release

11 May, 2016

TEACHING YORÙBÁ AS A SECOND AND A FOREIGN LANGUAGE: TWO-DAY INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

The University of Ibadan's Yorùbá Language Centre (YLC) is organising a two-day International Workshop on the teaching of Yorùbá as a second and a foreign language from May 10 to May 11, 2016. The venue is the Centre's Seminar Room and the time is 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. each day.

The Workshop is aimed at equipping the participants with current and recent global practice in the field of Language Teaching focusing on Interpersonal, Interpretative and Presentational Mode of Communication, Curriculum Development, Lesson Planning, Class Control and Management, Evaluation, and other Best Principles of Effective Language Teaching.

The participants are drawn primarily from the Postgraduate Students of the Department of Linguistics and African Languages to serve as Instructors, Language Partners/Conversation Assistants and Tour Guides for YLC's Fulbright-Hays Intensive Advanced Yorùbá Group Project Abroad (GPA) programme from June to August, 2016. Other interested participants are also very welcome.

The Resource Persons are KazeemKehindeSanuth of the Department of African Languages and Literature and the Department of Second Language Acquisition, University of Wisconsin – Madison, USA and Clement Odoje of the Department of Linguistics and African Languages, University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria. The host is Professor KọlaOwolabi, Director, Yorùbá Language Centre.

Please feel free to contact the following numbers if you have any questions: 08034018445; 08032387999.

Thank you.

O. I. Olukoya, MNIM, FPA
Registrar