

3946

Special Release

04 April, 2017

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS: 8TH IBADAN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT SUMMIT (ISDS)

The University of Ibadan Centre for Sustainable Development (CESDEV), the African Sustainable Development Network (ASUDNET) and the Nigeria Sustainable Development Solutions Network (NSDSN) have announced the call for papers for the 8th Ibadan Sustainable Development Summit (ISDS) scheduled to hold from 21-25 August, 2017 at the Trenchard Hall and the CESDEV Suite, 20 Awolowo Avenue, Old Bodija, Ibadan, Nigeria. The theme of the Summit is Challenges and Prospects of Attaining Sustainable Development Goals within Planetary Boundaries.

Sub-Themes:

1. Clean Energy and Sustainable Infrastructure
2. Climate Change and Biodiversity and Ecosystem services
3. Ending Poverty and Narrowing Inequality
4. Health, Water and Sanitation
5. Inclusive Economic Growth, Prosperity and Sustainable Businesses
6. Innovative Science and Technology
7. Environmental limits to Human Development
8. Politics and Governance (including Communications Conflicts and Partnership)
9. Quality Education, Job Skills and Decent Work
10. Sustainable Land Use and Rural Development

The Summit engages all stakeholders in the development practice, academics and research to discuss issues development challenges and proffer solutions through inclusive and robust dialogue and scientific investigations as we invite contributions from staff and students of the University. Abstract submission closes on 30 July, 2017.

Registration Fee: Early Bird (up to June 30, 2017) USD 150 (Naira equivalent acceptable).

Student registration: USD $75. For further details on ISDS, please visit (www.isdsconference.com).

Thank you.

O. I. Olukoya, MNIM, FPA
Registrar