EID-EL-KABIR PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

The Federal Government has declared Tuesday, 21 and Wednesday, 22 August, 2018 as public holidays to mark the celebration of this year's Eid-El-Kabir.

To this end, the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Abel Idowu Olayinka, FAS, felicitates with all Muslims, urging them to remember to observe the lessons of the Eid-El-Kabir Festival.

He commended Muslims in the University for their support and continuous contributions to the development of the institution and peaceful co-existence with their neighbours as well as people of other religious persuasions.

Work resumes on Thursday, 23 August, 2018.
