

4512

Special Release

12 October, 2022

JOB VACANCY ADVERTISEMENT: COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST (CULTURE)

The Executive Secretary of the National Universities Commission has drawn the attention of all Vice-Chancellors to the letter from the Nigerian National Commission for UNESCO, Federal Ministry of Education, Ref. IEF.59/S.179/VI and dated 30 September, 2022, on the above subject.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) has announced a vacancy position for the post of Communication Specialist (Culture) at the UNESCO Headquarters in Paris. Internal and external candidates, who wish to apply for the position, may do so via the UNESCO careers website or directly through the attached link:

<https://careers.unesco.org/job/Paris-Communication-Specialist-%28Culture%29/755048502/>

Consequently, Vice-Chancellors were requested to give this information wide circulation in their respective institutions for interested eligible candidates to apply.

All candidates must complete the on-line application before the deadline of midnight (Paris time) Monday, 24 October, 2022.

Thank you.

Olubunmi O. Faluyi, MCIPM
Registrar/Secretary to Council